SHERIFFS NAB KING JOY FOR CONTEMPT

FESTIVAL RULER IS MADE TO ATTEND CONVENTION DE-SPITE PROTESTS.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 9.—The United States marshal and the sheriff of Oregon are no respecters of royalty. This morning they arrested a king. It was King Joy they arrested on a warrant charging him with contempt of court in not attending the sheriff's convention.

The arrest was made at the Portland hotel by United States Marshal Montag and half a dozen sheriffs. The king, who at other times is Till Taylor, sheriff of Umatilla county, was nabbed as he sauntered through the hotel lobby. He was rushed to a waiting police patrol, which clanking its way through the crowded streets, carried the royal prisoner to the courthouse.

"I shall refuse to talk," said the king, exercising the right of all prisoners.

When they reached the convention room Sheriff Hurlburt of Multnomah read to the prisoner the warrant and demanded an explanation.

"I demand an attorney," replied the king.

This was refused, but the prisoner was soon released on his own recognizance. Then he expressed his good wishes for the success of the newly formed organization and was permitted to leave to attend to his royal duties.

Long-Hidden Loot Found.
DOVER, Del., June 9.—Had Captain Kidd's fabulous buried treasure been discovered it could have created no more excitement in Dover than did the unearthing of a quantity of valuable jewelry and gold coins by workmen who were digging stumps on the farm of General A. R. Benson, about a mile from Dover.

The articles uncovered so far include two solid gold watches, one silver watch, one nickel watch, three gold rings several gold brooches and breastpins and gold coins in denominations of $20, $10, $5 and $2.50, the value of the entire "find" amounting to hundreds of dollars. Although slightly corroded all the articles are in good condition except the nickel watch which is rusted through. It is believed the valuables comprise the loot of a robbery committed 10 or 12 years ago which had been buried by the thieves with the intention of returning later and securing it.
